Arthur B. Counts, Beverly Avenue, who was registered with Harrisburg Board No. 1, also went with the local contingent and was accepted. Bossler and Paris were leaders.

Board No. 3 is sending Alfhure Asklund to Chicago this week for induction there.

22 From Board 1 Returned

Twenty-two of the contingent of selectees sent by Draft Board No. 1, to Wilkes-Barre on Saturday, for a final physical examination, prior to induction into the armed forces of the country, were rejected, according to information received locally today.

The reason for rejection follow: Eyes, 4; ear, nose and throat, 1; hernia, 5; cardiovalvular, 1; lungs, 2; neurological, 3; miscellaneous, 6.

Forty-five of the selectees were accepted and were sent to an army camp. Included in the contingent of Draft Board No. 1, were ten who had been transferred to other boards for induction, or who had enlisted after the call was issued. One of the young men who had been slated for the final exam, is a patient in a hospital.
