Meet in Belgium

APR 12 1945

Pfc. Kalman Kucsan met one of his three brothers in the armed forces, Private Stephen Kucsan, "somewhere in Belgium," and the two enjoyed each other's company for two days.

Pfc. Kucsan was inducted May 28, 1943, and was sent to Fort Belvoir, Va., and Greenville, Pa., to complete his training. He has seen action with the Engineer Corps in England, France, Belgium, Holland and Germany.

Pvt. Stephen Kucsan was inducted February 25, 1943, and was stationed at Sheppard Field, Texas; Daniel Field, Ga., and Little Field, Minn. He went overseas to England in December, 1943. Stationed with the Army Ordnance Ammunition Unit in Belgium, he has participated in the fighting for Belgium and France.

Another brother, Pvt. Joseph Kucsan, is stationed in Germany with the Infantry. The only Navy brother, F 2-C Frank Kucsan, is serving somewhere in the South Pacific.
