WACs to Get Women From Valley Area

JAN 11 1944

Another contingent of WAC recruits from the Lehigh Valley will leave tomorrow for training at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga.

Two of the recruits—Ruth K. Parry, of Bethlehem R. D. 3 and Geraldine M. Schweitzer, of Freemansburg—have been assigned to the Army Air Forces.

Mrs. Parry's husband, Private First Class Russell Parry, has been serving with the Army in Hawaii for three years. She is a daughter of Mrs. Pearl Rabenold of Lehigh R. D. 1 and was employed at the Call-Chronicle newspapers and the L. F. Grammes Co., before her enlistment. Her brother, Clarence Rabenold, is in Italy with an Army tank unit.

Miss Schweitzer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Schweitzer, of Freemansburg, and was employed at the Sarco Manufacturing Corp. in Fountain Hill.

The other recruits are Mrs. Albert K. Wilson, of 219 North Sixteenth Street, Allentown; Mrs. Mary J. Miller, of 1709 Englewood Street, Bethlehem, and Stephenie Drewnicka, of 20 South Third Street, Quakertown.

Mrs. Wilson, a graduate of the U. S. Secretarial School in Washington, had been employed at the New York Q. M. Price Adj. Office in New York City.

Mrs. Miller, formerly employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company and the Modern Silk Mill in Bethlehem, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cogle, of 1260 Fairfax Street, Allentown. She has a brother, Howard, in the Navy.

Miss Drewnicka is the daughter of Mrs. Eva Kaniefski, of Chester. She was employed by the S. K. F. industries in Gwynedd.
