

Takach, Frank S.

Back in Action

You can't keep a good man down, and Marine Technical Sergeant Frank S. Takach of Bethlehem, is a good man. The 24-year-old aerial gunner was wounded over Munday last February, but, after returning to the United States and recuperating, he is already back in the Pacific war theater, again taking pot shots at Japs.

Official Photo,
U. S. Marine Corps.

December 15, 1943