

Fatebene, Michael
Joseph

Pfc. Fatebine

SEP 6 1945

Pfc. Michael Fatebene, recently promoted son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Fatebene, 948 East Sixth Street, returned from 2 years overseas duty with the 35th Infantry Division August 31.

Pfc. Fatebene holds three battle participation stars for the Central Europe, Belgian Bulge, and Germany campaigns as well as the Good Conduct Medal. He was inducted January 30, 1943 and after completing his training at various Army camps throughout the States, was sent overseas to England from Camp Sutton, N. C.

The young soldier, who has 70 discharge points to his credit, will return to Camp Breckenridge, Ky. for reassignment in the States, upon completion of his 30-day furlough. He is a former employee of the Bethlehem Steel Company. His brother, Joseph, Seaman 1/c, U. S. Coastguard, is serving on the high seas with the Atlantic Fleet at present.
