In Church Rites

In St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Hanover Avenue, Allentown, on Saturday at 2 o'clock, Miss Ruth Agnes Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Williams, 21 West Garrison Street, became the bride of Harry Fitzer Jr., A. O. M. 1-c, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fitzer Sr., 430 West Broad Street. The Rev. Warren C. Heinly performed the double ring ceremony.

Harold G. Miller, brother-in-law of the bride, gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of white taffeta and lace with a full length veil of net falling from a halo of seed pearls and carried a prayer book with an orchid marker.

Miss Catherine S. Murray, Bethlehem, maid of honor, wore a gown of pink net over taffeta. Miss Anne Ranek, Hellertown, and Miss Arline Podhayny, Steel City, were the bridesmaids and wore gowns of blue net over taffeta. All wore garlands of roses in their hair and carried colonial bouquets of pink roses.

Clair Halowell was the best man and Charles Mochanar and Stanley Shiffert served as ushers.

White gladioli and white asters graced the church altar. Karl Biesges presided at the organ console and played a recital before the ceremony and the traditional wedding music.

A reception followed the ceremony on the church lawn. The couple left for a wedding trip to Atlantic City.

The bride attended Liberty High School and was employed at the Josette Undergarment Company. The bridegroom graduated from Liberty High School and was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company prior to entering the service. He is enjoying his first leave after 33 months of service on an aircraft carrier in the South Pacific. On September 11, he will return to Philadelphia for further assignment. He wears eleven battle stars, one silver and six bronze stars.
