

BAPL's Rayah Levy: "Voices from the African Diaspora: The Black Experience of Bethlehem"

The Bethlehem Gadfly George Floyd killing, History, Bethlehem February 12, 2021

 Latest in a series of posts in the wake of the George Floyd murder

Black Bethlehem Project

Voices from the African Diaspora: The Black Experience of Bethlehem
Rayah Levy, Bethlehem Area Public Library
February 16, 2021, 6:30-8:30PM
Register here

We speak of Moravian Bethlehem. And many of us know at least something about it.

Rayah will speak about Black Bethlehem. Which only a few of us know anything at all about.

We are closing in on the one-year anniversary of George Floyd's death.

What will we have to show for the year?

What have we learned about race in our lives?

Voices from the African Diaspora: The Black Experience of Bethlehem, PA

An Oral History Exhibit by
M. Rayah Levy
February 16 through March 14, 2021
Reeves Library - Lower Level

Live Zoom Presentation to be held Tuesday, February 16, 2021
from 6:30-8:00 PM EST
<https://www.moravian.edu/archives/events>

Black Bethlehem Project

The Bethlehem Gadfly