

Sturdivant, Charles!

Two Bethlehemites At Naval Station

New recruits at the U. S. Naval Training Station, Great Lakes, Ill., are two Bethlehem men.

They are now receiving instruction in seamanship, military drill and naval procedure. Soon, they will be given a series of aptitude tests for determining whether they will be assigned to one of the Navy's service schools, or to immediate active duty at sea.

Upon completion of their recruit training, these men will be home on a nine-day leave. They are: Charles Sturdivant, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sturdivant, 311 Diamond Street, and Oliver F. Wallace, 17, son of G. R. Wallace, 1469 East Sixth Street.
