

Wallander, Robert L.

ROBERT WALLANDER TO RECEIVE COMMISSION

Parents to Witness Presentation of Wings September 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Wallander, 901 Linden Street, left this morning to visit their son, Robert L., who has returned to Fort Moultrie, Ga., after completing his training in the Combat and Gunnery School at Elgin Field, Valparaiso, Fla.

Cadet Wallander is flying a pursuit ship and will receive his commission and wings as an air corps pilot September 6, at Fort Moultrie. His parents will be present to witness the ceremony.

CADET ROBERT L. WALLANDER

Cadet Wallander prior to his enlistment in the armed forces was a senior at Moravian College. He was active in the Y. M. C. A. movement and in the Young People's Society of Nativity Church. He is also well known as a musician, having been connected with leading musical groups in this city. He received his basic training under Joseph Ricapito in the Bethlehem High School Band and later was a member of the local Tall Cedar Band, under Claude M. Stauffer, and of the Allentown Band, under Albertus Meyers. Two years ago he served as drum major of the Moravian College Band.
