

Fielding, Christopher J.

Ohio Girl Betrothed To Cpl. Fielding

SEP 28 1943

Miss Elsie Florence Keim, daughter of John S. Keim, R. D. 1, East Canton, Ohio, and Cpl. Christopher J. Fielding, son of Mrs. William I. Frueh, 746 Seventh Avenue, and the late Christopher Fielding were married Saturday at 10 a. m. in SS. Simon and Jude Church. The Rev. James McDonald officiated.

Given in marriage by Jacob Keim, her brother, the bride wore white lady slipper satin, tulle veil and carried white chrysanthemums and stephanotis. Miss Emily Fielding, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore rose taffeta and carried yellow chrysanthemums and shell pink ponpons.

Mrs. Charles Biehn, the bridesmaid, wore aqua taffeta and carried yellow chrysanthemums and orchid ponpons.

John Fielding was his brother's best man and Charles Biehn was usher.

The church was decorated with palms and white gladioli. Mrs. Joseph Doll, organist, played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Arthur Fisher, the soloist, who sang "Ave Marie" (Greig), "Pater Noster". Mrs. Doll also played "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother."

A reception was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Walter Siegfried, 118 West Spruce Street, after which the couple left on a wedding trip to New York.

The bride attended Bethlehem High School and is employed in the main office of the Bethlehem Steel Company. The bridegroom, now stationed at Camp Tyson, Tenn., also attended Bethlehem High School and was employed in the main office of the Bethlehem Steel Company.
