

Rotondo, Daniel J.

"Skips a Grade"

APR 28 1943

Back in grammar school days when a fellow did extra good work and promotion time came 'round, often as not he "skipped a grade." Well, that's what has come to Daniel J. Rotondo, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Rotondo, 810 Wyandotte Street, Bethlehem, who has been advanced from buck private to corporal technician without benefit of the intermediate grade of private first class.

Corp. Rotondo enlisted in the Army and was inducted December 11, 1942. He is presently stationed at Camp VanDorn, Miss., where he is a member of an infantry unit, plays with the band and instructs in fugal.

Before he entered the service he was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Co. and played with Harry Romig and the Casa Mana orchestras.
