

Reighenbach, Harold R.

Harold Reighenbach, Quakertown, Back From Pacific Duty

Harold Revellion Reighenbach, 19, fireman, first class, USNR, of Quakertown, has arrived at Norfolk, Va., to train for duties aboard a new destroyer of the Atlantic Fleet.

Reighenbach, who has returned from a period of duty aboard a landing ship in the Pacific, wears ribbons for the American Area, the Asiatic-Pacific Area with four combat stars, and the Philippine Liberation with one combat star.

He is the son of Mrs. Maggie Reighenbach of Fairview, Quakertown. Before enlisting in the Navy, he was employed by the R. M. Taylor Fur Co. He attended Central High School. JUL 31 1945

July 31, 1945