

DeLong, Howard

Wounded Twice

FEB 17 1945

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson DeLong, Bethlehem R. D. 1, received a telegram from the War Department stating that their son, T-Sgt. Howard DeLong, was wounded in action the second time, January 31, 1945, in Belgium. Sgt. DeLong was wounded the first time July 27, 1944, somewhere in France. After a few months hospitalization in England, he returned to action with the 38th Infantry Division. He has been in the service over four years.
