MAY 3 1944

First Lieut. John Kajmo, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kajmo, Kichline Avenue, Hellertown, was decorated with the Distinguished Flying Cross Air Medal. He completed 25 missions and his crew shot down four Nazi planes. Lieut. Kajmo has returned from a five-month mission in England and is home on a 23-day furlough. He received his basic training at Fort Meade, Md., and was graduated from Lubbock, Texas, after which he was assigned to a crew at Scott Field, Illinois, and then overseas duty.
