

Leibert, Gerald

Survives Blast

JUL 31 1944

Gerald Leibert, electrician's mate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Leibert, 64 East Ettweil Street, is home on a 30-day leave after having been rescued from the U. S. S. Glennon, which was blown up by a mine following the invasion of Europe.

Leibert enlisted in the Navy, August 17, 1942, received his basic training at Newport, R. I., made several trips across the Atlantic and saw action in the invasion of Sicily.
