

Bayuk, William

Made Corporal

Corporal William Bayuk, 511 E. 5th Street, promoted July 1, is spending a 10-day furlough with friends and relatives. He is at present stationed at Camp Atterbury, Indiana, after his trip from the North African battle zone. He is attached to the 414th Military Police Escort Guard, engaged as a cook and received his basic training at Fort Custer, Michigan. Prior to induction Corp. Bayuk was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Co. as a heater in the treating department.

Jul 20, 1943