

Baum, George W.

G. W. Baum Assigned To New Navy LSM

George W. Baum, a resident of this city, has been selected by the Navy for duty aboard an LSM (Landing Ship, Medium), latest and most advanced design in the nation's growing fleet of amphibious ships.

Baum is assigned to an LSM crew at the Amphibious Training Base in Little Creek, Va., where he is training for service as Electrician's Mate with the amphibious forces.

Baum joined the Navy in October, 1943, and went through recruit training at Sampson, N. Y. He was formerly employed by the Pennsylvania Power & Light Company. His brother, Robert, is a chief motor machinist's mate in the Navy, now serving overseas. The two men are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baum, who reside at 322 North New Street, this city.
