

Braden, William J.

Brothers-in-law Promoted

WILLIAM J. BRADEN, S 2-C RAYMOND A. DUBBS, S 1-C

William J. Braden, seaman second class, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Braden, 48-50 East Broad Street, who has completed his boot training at Sampson, N. Y., and received his new rating. He is home on a 21-day leave visiting his wife, the former Miss Virginia Dubbs, who resides in Bethlehem R. D. 4. Before he was inducted December 29, 1943, he was employed by the Braden Glass and Mirror Works. Monday he will return to Sampson Naval Base for further assignment. Raymond A. Dubbs, son of Mrs. Roy Dubbs of Bethlehem R. D. 4, completed his boot training at Sampson, N. Y., and is now a seaman first class. He was home recently and is now on sea duty with the Atlantic Fleet. Before his induction April, 1943, he was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company.

Feb. 26, 1944