

Hetrick, Asher

Receives Wings

Presented with his wings as a full-fledged paratrooper today, Asher Hetrick (above), son of Mrs. Russell eHtrick and the late Mr. Hetrick, 1628 East Fourth Street, will arrive home shortly for a brief furlough. Hetrick entered the service last November 30 and took his basic training at Ft. Benning, Ga. He has been stationed at Benning since but was sent this week to McCall Field, N. C., to receive his wings.
