

Windish, John J.

First Lieutenant

John J. Windish, who was wounded in the Normandy invasion last June, and held prisoner in a German prison camp for several months, has been promoted to First Lieutenant, his mother, Mrs. Mary Windish, 518 Wyandotte Street, has been informed.

1st Lieutenant Windish is stationed at the Deyshon General Hospital, Butler, Pa. He entered the service in June, 1942, and trained with the Cavalry at Fort Riley, Kansas. He was later transferred to the Paratroops and sent overseas in February, 1943. He is a Bethlehem Catholic High School graduate and a former employee of the Bethlehem Steel Company. A brother, Private First Class Frank Windish, is serving in the Philippines with the Amphibious Infantry at present.

March 31, 1945