

Sterrett, Frank W.

Ensign Sterrett JUN 5
Ends Special Training 1943

Ensign Frank William Sterrett, U. S. Coast Guard Reserve, 825 Delaware Avenue, recently completed special training in the detection and destruction of enemy submarines at the Navy Yard at Charleston, S. C.

He graduated with a class of Naval and Coast Guard officers and enlisted men selected to study new methods of combating undersea raiders.

Ensign Sterrett is the son of the Rt. Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Frank W. Sterrett of Delaware Avenue, and the husband of Elizabeth Jane Sterrett, 620 First Avenue.

He attended Moravian Preparatory School and Moravian College from where he was graduated in 1940.

Before enlisting in the Coast Guard in November, 1942, he was a steel inspector. He was in training at the U. S. Coast Guard Academy, New London, Conn., for four months.

June 5, 1943