

Gorman, Patrick B.

Receives Stripe

Mrs. Patrick B. Gorman, 943 Delaware Avenue, Fountain Hill, has received word that her husband has been promoted to private, first class. Private "Paddy," as he is familiarly known, was inducted into the service January 19, 1943, and sent to Camp Edwards, Mass., where he received his basic training and also took his advance course of training as a member of the Coast Artillery Anti-Aircraft. He has been a resident of Fountain Hill for the past two years. Prior to his induction into the service he was employed by the Just Born Candy Corporation. Mrs. Gorman is the former Grace C. Laughlin, daughter of Mrs. Rose and the late Arthur Laughlin, 943 Delaware Avenue. Private Gorman was also an active member of the Fountain Hill Civilian Defense Corps. Before his marriage to Miss Laughlin, he lived with Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Bitting, of Seneca Street, for a number of years, Mrs. Bitting being an aunt of Mrs. Gorman.

August 12, 1943