Springtown WAC Earns Good Conduct Medal

HOBBS ARMY AIR FIELD, Hobbs, N. M.—Cpl. Arlene C. Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Miller of Springtown, was one of 18 Air WACs who received the Good Conduct medal today by Col. J. P. Bailey, commanding officer, for "exemplary behavior, efficiency and fidelity" since joining the WAC in March, 1943. JUN 22 1944

Presentation of the medal marked Hobbs Army Air Field's observance of the first anniversary of Air WACs arrival at the field, where they are working shoulder to shoulder with Army Air Forces Training Command ground crews as link trainer instructors, radio operators, parachute packers, clerks and photo technicians.
