

Stehly, Robert

STATIONED IN ALUTIANS.

Lad Who Left With 213th Regiment on Far Outpost.

A Bethlehem man who left two years ago with the 213th Regiment (First Defenders) of Coast Artillery, A. A., is now in the Aleutian Islands with an entirely different U. S. Army unit. He is Corp. Robert Stehly, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stehly, Sr., of 2507 Linden Street, who received word recently of their son's new post.

The young soldier, who celebrated his birthday on June 18, went with the home unit, Battery C, to Virginia Beach when the National Guard regiment was Federalized. He was later transferred to Ft. Eustis, Va., where he was given a specialist rating, first class. Since his transferral to the Aleutians he has been promoted to the rank of corporal. 9-31-1942
