

Chuck, William
Frank

Chuck Brothers Home
After Long Sea Service

Frank and William Chuck, former newsboys for the Globe-Times, are spending a few days' furlough at the home of their mother, Mrs. Frank Bedics, 509 Polk Street, after having had considerable service at sea.

Frank is acting A. B. in the Merchant Marine and has recently returned from duty on the SS A. L. Kent in the Atlantic theater. He entered the service October 18, 1944.

William is seaman first class and has just returned from seventeen months' service on an aircraft carrier. He has been in the service since February 18, 1943.
