Schoolboys Leave
For Navy Service APR 30 1943

Charles S. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones, 1201 East Third Street, Bethlehem, left Wednesday morning for Navy service. The youth was treasurer for Liberty High School's senior class. He will receive his diploma after graduation exercises at the school in June, it was reported.

The youth played varsity football with the Red Hurricane eleven and was a member of the baseball team until accepted for service. He was also an active student council member at the high school.

Anthony W. Garbaczewski, son of Mrs. Mary Garbaczewski, 818 Wood Street, Bethlehem, left Wednesday for Navy service. A Bethlehem Technical High School student, he was the regular third baseman on the Bethlehem High School baseball nine until his departure.
