

Flammer, Robert G.

AT ARMORED FORCE SCHOOL

FORT KNOX, KY.—Among the thousands of selectees now entering the armed forces, the following men: Pvt. Robert G. Flammer, son of Mrs. Clara A. Flammer, 229 Spring st.; Pvt. Justin M. Carisio, son of Mrs. Guistino Carisio, 1619 Market st.; Pvt. Louis A. Groff, Jr., son of Mrs. Louis Groff, 1031 Spring st.; Pvt. Leonard W. Barber, son of Byron B. Barber, 18 East Union blvd.; Pvt. Robert Reagan, of 442 Maple st. and Pvt. Emmanuel Theodoredis, son of Demetrius Theodoredis, 702 Second ave., entered the Armored Force Replacement Training Center for their basic training in the newest and hardest-hitting branch of the Army.

The men will be put on a 12-week training program which has been systematically laid out into two six-week periods. The first six-week period will be devoted to the organization of the Army and Armored Force; insignia of rank; military courtesy and discipline; care of clothing and equipment; and many other fundamentals which will enable them to become good soldiers. During this period the men will be classified according to their knowledge and ability, so that they can start their second six-week period in specialized training. These special courses include: Light tank, medium tank, scouting and patrolling, mortar, anti-tank, machine gun, assault gun, and reconnaissance.
