

Brothers-in-Law Advance

ERNEST PARSONS

Mrs. Ethel Parsons of 518 George Street, Pen Argy., has received word that her husband, Ernest B. Parsons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Parsons of Pen Argyl Street, Pen Argyl, and her brother, Robert G. Davis, of Wind Gap, both in the U. S. Navy, have been promoted.

Ernest B. Parsons, promoted to the rating of Seaman 1-C, entered the U. S. Navy service on April 12, 1944 and received his boot training at the U. S. Naval Training Station at Bainbridge, Md. After completing his boot training, he spent a leave with his wife and then was sent to a base in California, where he was assigned to a ship and is on sea duty in the South Pacific. Prior to entering the U. S. Navy, he was employed by Bangor Mills, Inc. He attended the Pen Argyl High School. Seaman and Mrs. Parsons have one daughter, Ruth Ann, and one son, Duane. Seaman Parsons has a brother, Lt. Kenneth Parsons, in the U. S. Army, serving in the Aleutians.

Robert G. Davis, brother of Mrs. Parsons and husband of the former Viola Lockard, of Wind Gap, was promoted from Seaman 2-C to Apprentice Electrician's Mate 3-C. He entered the U. S. Navy on March 13, 1944, and received his boot training at the U. S. Naval Training Station at Bainbridge, Md. He has been stationed in the Hawaiian Islands since June of this year. He attended the Wind Gap and Pen Argyl schools. Prior to entering the service, he was employed by the Blue Ridge Textile Co. Mr. and Mrs. Davis have a daughter, Patricia Ann. Seaman Davis and Mrs. Parsons have a brother, Pfc. Ralph Davis, of Wind Gap, in the U. S. Army, stationed in Italy, having been overseas 17 months.