

Brubaker, Mildred

To Train at Hunter.

Two Bangor girls, Edythe Hughes, 46 North Second Street, and Mildred Brubaker, 339 Pennsylvania Avenue, Bangor, left today for Hunter College, N. Y., where they will begin training with the SPARS, Coast Guard auxiliary.

The girls will be among the largest class to leave the Fourth Naval District when 211 women left for training in New York.

These women are listed as apprentice seamen for training to qualify them as petty officers.
