Soldier In Africa Sends Easter Bloom To Mother

Pfc. Kenneth J. Morgan, a member of Uncle Sam's Corps of Army Engineers serving somewhere in the North African war area, didn't forget that Sunday is Easter Day for Thursday of this week there arrived at the home of his mother, Mrs. Thomas P. Morgan, 617 Maple St., Bethlehem, a remembrance in the form of a potted four-bloom hydrangea.

Soldier Morgan telegraphed his wishes to a Bethlehem florist through the Army Exchange in his post area.

The 30-year-old engineer has been in the Army for three years and overseas for nearly two. He is a graduate of Bethlehem Catholic High School.
