

Hensinger, Thomas C.

HENSINGER PROMOTED

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hensinger, 1349 Linden Street, Bethlehem, have been advised of the promotion of their son, Thomas C., to the rank of corporal upon his entrance into the Medical Detachment Enlisted Training School at the O'Reilly General Hospital, Springfield, Mo.

Hensinger is a graduate of Liberty High School and had been employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company in its metallurgical training course from the time of his graduation until his induction into the service November 29.

He was sent first to New Cumberland and then transferred to the Medical Detachment of the Army Air Force at Kearns, Utah, where he completed his basic training and qualified for the course in which he is presently preparing for laboratory technical work.
