

Crawford II, John S.

Lieut. Crawford Takes Bride At Pittsburgh

MAY 23 1944

At an attractive wedding Saturday in the Shady Side Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, the marriage of Miss Martha Jane Tennant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Williamson Tennant of Pittsburgh, and Lt. John Sterrett Crawford II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clement Crawford of 529 Eighth Avenue, this city, took place. The Rev. Dr. Hugh Thompson Kerr officiated.

Mr. Tennant gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of white satin, with a long veil of tulle falling from a cap of old family Duchess lace. Mrs. William Whitten Crawford was her matron of honor and Miss Shirley Smalls of Omaha, Neb., was maid of honor. They both wore gowns of lilac marquise.

Mr. Crawford was his son's best man. Lieut. William Whitten Crawford of Camp McCoy, Wis.; Harry C. Crawford Jr., of Watertown, Mass.; Ensign Thomas Dickson Boak of Fort Schuyler, N. Y.; Lieut. Louis B. Erling of Camp Grube, Okla.; Lieut. (j. g.) Stewart Horner Steffley of Pittsburgh; U. Hayden Brockway of Camp McCoy; Richard Tennant of Pittsburgh, and Lieut. Charles Allen Reid Jr. of Pittsburgh, were ushers.

A reception followed at the Twentieth Century Club, Pittsburgh. Mr. and Mrs. Crawford and their daughter, Mrs. Thomas Dickson Boak, attended the wedding and reception from Bethlehem.

The bride is a graduate of Winchester-Thurston School, attended Wellesley College and is now studying at the Carnegie Institute of Technology. The bridegroom is a graduate of Hill School and Wesleyan University and is now serving in the Army of the United States. He is a member of Psi Upsilon fraternity.
