

Ward, Bernard J,

War I Veteran
Gets Discharge
After Pacific Duty

May 31 1945
A veteran of World War I, Chief MM Bernard J. Ward, 629 Hertzog Avenue, has been honorably discharged from the U. S. Navy Reserve after serving 28 months active duty in the South Pacific. Chief Ward served with the submarine division for six years during World War I, and three years with the U. S. Navy during this war. His brother, John Ward, another Navy man, is stationed at Rhode Island after completing three years duty in the South Pacific. The chief's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Ward, reside at 433 Pierce Street. Mrs. B. Ward is the former Catherine Flok.
