

Dobosh, George

Dr. George Dobosh
Resumes Practice

APR 13 1946

Dr. George Dobosh has resumed his practice at 1622 W. Broad St., following three and a half years with the Army Medical Corps. Dr. Dobosh, who held the rank of major while in the Army, made 10 overseas crossings.

The local physician was on duty at Fort Slocum, N. Y.; Camp Kilmer, N. J.; Camp Shanks, N. Y., and Camp Stone, Calif., before going overseas as commanding officer of the 490th Medical Platoon. He visited France, England and Scotland to return wounded soldiers to the United States.
