

Spirk, Elmer F.
Albert

On Convoy Duty

JAN 31 1945

Coast Guardsman Elmer F. Spirk, seaman first class, 1315 Broadway, makes entry in the log on the bridge of the Coast Guard Combat Cutter on which he is stationed. Serving in the Atlantic, Spirk's ship helps convoy men and supplies to the battle of Germany. He has a brother, Albert, who is a seaman first class in the U. S. Navy and is serving with the armed guard on a merchant ship in the Atlantic. Before enlisting in the Coast Guard two years ago, Spirk was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company.

January 31, 1945