

Roberts, Robert J.

Injured Soldier Marks Third Year In Service

SEP 25 1944

The third anniversary of his entry into the service was observed yesterday by Sgt. Robert J. Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Roberts of 1319 Jennings Street, in a hospital in Brisbane, Australia, where he is recovering from an injury sustained in a convoy accident.

Sgt. Roberts is a cryptographic chief with the Fifth Army Air Corps, a branch of radar, and has been overseas for 27 months. Prior to entering the service he was employed as an assistant to the treasurer in the H. N. Crowder, Jr., offices. He is a member of Trinity Episcopal Church.
