

Rikli Jr., John

Medic Promoted

Cpl. John Rikli Jr., a member of the Medical Corps attached to the Army Air Forces, was recently promoted to his present grade in the South Pacific.

Rikli, who is on his way home, has seen service in Africa, India, Australia, Tinian Islands and Japan. He was inducted January, 1943, and in February of the following year, was sent overseas. The corporal wears five battle stars on his campaign ribbons.

Prior to entering the service, Rikli was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company and had attended Liberty High School. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Rikli, 733 Wood Street.

Oct 29 '45

October 29, 1945