In Army 5 Years

SEP 24 1945

Michael Francis Check Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Check, 544 Selfridge Street, was recently promoted to the rank of Corporal and on Saturday marked his fifth birthday anniversary spent in the Army. He served with the Second Division in the ETO and while in Germany received the Purple Heart for wounds suffered in action. He also wears the Good Conduct Medal, Oak Leaf Cluster, ETO ribbon with one battle star and Pearl Harbor Ribbon. He is presently in the General Hospital at Camp Pickett, Va. Two brothers are also in service. They are Master Sergeant Andrew R. Check, now on Okinawa, who formerly flew a B-29, and Pfc. George R. Check, stationed at the Mexican border, who served a year in England as a member of a bomb crew on a B-24.
