

Rajcok, Paul

PAUL RAJCOK TO RECEIVE
HIS "WINGS" SATURDAY
DEC 11 1942

Graduation at Florida Training
School to be Attended by Mother.

Saturday, December 12, will be eventful in the life of Paul Rajcok, 512 Flot Avenue. On this date he will be graduated from a U. S. Army Air Corps School at Coral Gables, Fla., and will be one of the class members to receive the coveted "wings". His mother, Mrs. Reagle Rohland, left a few days ago to attend the graduation exercises.

PAUL RAJCOK

Well known in Bethlehem, the young man enlisted in the U. S. Air Corps in October, 1941, and after receiving his basic training at Maxwell Field, Ala., he was transferred to Shaw Field. Following the bombing of Pearl Harbor he enrolled in the Coral Gables School.

He is a graduate of Liberty High School, completed a Penn State extension course and spent two years at Lehigh University. For some time he had been a student in navigation at the University of Miami.

December 11, 1942