Comrades-In-Arms Overseas

MAR 22 1944

Shown here are six Bethlehem lads who since their induction on March 25, 1943, have not been separated and are now in England. In the front row, left to right, are Pfc. William H. Cann, Pfc. Gordon W. Ackey Pfc. Morris J. Litrenta; back row: Pvt. William C. Acker, Pfc. Raymond G. Minnich and Pfc. John J. Thomas. They left for New Cumberland on April 2, 1943; took their basic at Camp Crowder, Mo., and were assigned to a signal installation. After a series of transfers they wound up overseas, but always in the same outfit.
