Local Officer Helps Cut Camp Cake

JAN 24 1945
CAMP CLAIBORNE, La.—In observance of Camp Claiborne's fourth anniversary on January 15, Brig. Gen. Louis F. Guerre, camp commanding general, cut a huge cake baked especially for the occasion by the 159th Quartermaster-Baking company. With the general when the cake was cut were, left to right, M-Sgt. William Boyd of Plattsburg, N. Y., Chief of the Quartermaster property warehouses; Capt. Victor W. Hummel of Bethlehem, Pa., chief of the post salvage branch; General Guerre; Mrs. Treble G. Fenton of Minden, La., senior administrative assistant of the civilian personnel office, and William M. Hustmyre of 328 St. Ann Street, Alexandria, chief clerk in the Purchasing and Contracting office. All four have been at the camp continuously since before it was opened officially on January 15, 1941. (Official U. S. Army Signal Corps Photograph)
