

Kovacs, Jr., Charles

Receives Wings

JUL 26 1944

Private First Class Charles Kovacs, Jr., 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kovacs, of Easton R. D. 3, has received his wings in the Glider Infantry, at Camp Forrest, Tenn.

The young soldier entered the Army April 5, 1943, and served his basic training at Camp McCall, N. C., from where he was sent to the Tennessee camp.

He attended Miller Heights Schools, and prior to entering the service, was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Co. He has one brother in the service, Private First Class Paul Kovacs, with the Army in Newfoundland.

July 26, 1944