

Reagan, K.S.

Capt. K. S. Reagan Given Discharge

Among those honorably separated from the service at the United States Army Separation Center in Newark, N. J., recently was Capt. Kinsey S. Reagan, son of W. A. Reagan, Nazareth. Oct 29 '45

Capt. Reagan has been released from the AAF after five years service. A U. S. Department of Agriculture employe before entering the service, he served 11 months as a bombardier in the ETO.

During his 30 combat missions, he earned the Distinguished Flying Cross, Air Medal with four clusters

October 29, 1945