

Breidinger, William C

Lt. W. C. Breidinger
Slightly Wounded 1945

Lt. William C. Breidinger has been reported slightly wounded in action in France January 2, in a War Department telegram received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Breidinger, Nazareth R. D. 3.

The young lieutenant enlisted in the Army Reserve October, 1942, and received training at Ft. McClellan, Ala. He was then sent to Officers Candidate School at Ft. Benning, Ga., receiving his commission June 27, 1944, and went to Camp Adair, Ore., and Ft. Leonard, Mo., prior to being sent overseas in December.

Lt. Breidinger is a graduate of Nazareth High School, Class of 1941. At the time he entered the Army he was a junior student at Lehigh University, majoring as a chemical engineer.
