JOHN M. NUSS

GEORGE PALI JR.

Flight Officer John M. Nuss, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Nuss, 531 West Third Street, and Second Lieutenant George Pali, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Pali, Goepp Street, graduated from the crack bombardier navigator school at Childress Army Air Field, Childress, Texas, in the first springtime graduation ceremony of the year. The graduates, trained by a faculty consisting largely of veterans of hundreds of missions in every theatre of air war, are now ready to join AAF combat teams for knockout blows at the enemy. The hand-picked cadets studied in ground and aerial classrooms, flew on day and night practice missions until they achieved a high degree of bombing marksmanship.
