Four Pen Argyl Young Men Meet In Pacific

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Doney of East Pennsylvania Avenue, Pen Argyl, in a recent letter received from their son, Robert E. Doney, stationed with the U. S. Marines in the South Pacific, were informed that four Pen Argyl young men had recently enjoyed a meeting, somewhere in the South Pacific. This group included Robert E. Doney, Robert Jackson, of the U. S. Marine Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton S. Jackson of South Schank Avenue, Pen Argyl; Jack Williamson, of the U. S. Marine Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Williamson, formerly of Pen Argyl, having moved only recently to Hackettstown, N. J., and John Toth, of the U. S. Navy, son of Andrew Toth, of South Westbrook Avenue, Pen Argyl.
