Gregus Brothers
Meet At Home

MAR 14 1945

Paul and Alexander Gregus met for the first time in over three and a half years at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gregus, Miller Heights.

Paul, recently promoted to private first class in the Infantry, was inducted September 14, 1943, and sent to Fort McClellan, Ala. Alexander, a corporal in the Medical Corps, was inducted in 1941 and sent to Puerto Rico where he has been stationed for the past two and a half years. They are former employes of the Taylor-Wharton Company and the Bethlehem Steel Company. Another brother, Pfc. William, is stationed in an Infantry camp in Georgia.
