

Zavis, Alfred

Home On Furlough

Private Alfred Zavis, 18, only son of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Zavis, 921 Seneca Street, is spending the holidays with his parents at that address, having completed his basic training at the Infantry Camp Blanding, near Jacksonville, Fla., where he had been stationed for the past five months since his induction in July of this year. At the end of his 10-day furlough, he will report to Fort Meade, Md., for further assignment.

Pvt. Alfred Zavis is a graduate of Bethlehem Technical High School, where he was a varsity member of the wrestling team for the past two years and before his induction into the armed forces he was employed by Hauser Chevrolet Company in the Used Car Department. He was an active member of Bethlehem Boy Scouts and was assistant scoutmaster of Troop No. 15 before entering the U. S. Army.
