

Smith, James L.

WEST SIDE YOUTH GIVEN U. S. N. R. COMMISSION

James L. Smith Sworn in Saturday as Ensign.

James Leslie Smith, 1762 West Union Boulevard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burton B. Smith, Birdsboro, Pa., has accepted a commission as ensign in the United States Naval Reserve.

He was sworn in Saturday in Philadelphia and has received orders to active duty. He will report to the commanding officer at the Naval Training School (Communications) Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass., on December 1, for temporary active duty under instruction.

ENSIGN JAMES LESLIE SMITH

Ensign Smith is a graduate of Birdsboro College and Pennsylvania State College. In college he was

ca
ar
ti
u.
m)
a