

Palmer, Richard B.

Ruth Darlington SEP 22 1943 Becomes Army Officer's Bride

Miss Ruth Barnard Darlington became the bride of Lieutenant Richard Bradbury Palmer on Monday afternoon at Friends Meeting, Kennett Square.

The bride is the daughter of Morton P. Darlington and the late Mrs. Darlington of Kennett Square. She was graduated from Cedar Crest College this past June.

Lieut. Palmer was graduated from Lehigh University in May 1943, and received his commission as Second Lieutenant at the Destroyer School, Camp Hood, Texas, in September. He is the son of Dean and Mrs. Philip M. Palmer, of Lehigh University. He holds membership in the Theta Delta Chi fraternity.

Mrs. Eleanor McKinstry of Kennett Square was the maid of honor and Harry Buncke, USN, was the best man. John Trull Palmer, brother of the bridegroom, served as usher and Norman Darlington, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's father following the ceremony.

After a wedding trip to the seashore, Lieut. Palmer will report back for duty at Camp Hood, Texas.

September 22, 1943